

Lee D. Hoffman

Lee Hoffman advises clients in the areas of energy law, utility matters and environmental law. Lee's work includes the siting and permitting of renewable and traditional commercial power generation facilities, assisting with facility audits, negotiating interconnections, advising companies on the ramifications associated with the acquisition or divestiture of assets, regulatory interpretation and the redevelopment of contaminated sites ("brownfields") to productive use. Mr. Hoffman served as one of two co-chairs of Governor Dannel P. Malloy's Energy Policy Working Group, and is a member of the Connecticut General Assembly's Brownfields Working Group. Mr. Hoffman is a graduate of Tulane University and the George Washington University Law School.

